

Diversity Statement for the Mediation Program

The U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York serves a wide variety of litigants, including persons of varying age, race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, physical or mental ability, religion, socioeconomic and family status. The Court's Mediation Program recognizes that mediators with a wide variety of cultural and life experiences enrich the mediation process by bringing diverse perspectives to resolving disputes. To accomplish these goals, it is important that the Court's Mediation Program attract and retain pro bono mediators who represent a range of personal and professional backgrounds who can, thereby, better serve, and instill confidence in, mediation participants. To that end, applicants of all diverse backgrounds and experiences are encouraged to apply for admission to the Mediation Panel.
