INTERNSHIP AND EXTERNSHIP APPLICATIONS

Job Description: Externs/interns (used interchangeably) assist Chambers with substantive legal research and writing tasks, which may include drafting opinions, or sections of opinions, and research memoranda, on a variety of legal issues. Externs attend civil and criminal in-court proceedings and telephonic conferences. Externs receive supervision and feedback from Judge Woods and his law clerks. Externs may be full- or part-time; in-person, remote, or hybrid, although in-person is strongly preferred. 1Ls, 2Ls, 3Ls, and LLMs are encouraged to apply. We are currently hiring for the Spring 2027 semester and for Summer 2027.

Positions: Judge Woods is currently accepting part-time and full-time internship applications for Spring and Summer 2027 on a rolling basis until all positions are filled.

Beginning on October 14, 2026, Judge Woods will be accepting part-time and full-time internship applications for Spring 2027 on a rolling basis until all positions are filled.

Beginning on December 1, 2026 through April 2, 2027, Judge Woods will be accepting full-time internship applications for Summer 2027 on a rolling basis until all positions are filled.

Applications: Applications should be e-mailed to the address above with “Internship/Externship Application: Spring 2027” (or appropriate term) in the subject line, and should contain a cover letter, resume, law school transcript, and one writing sample, all in PDF format. Applicants may update their application with new information as it becomes available.

Chambers will contact applicants directly in the event Judge Woods wishes to schedule an interview.
Applicants should not call Chambers.
