Positions: Judge Karas is accepting applications for Summer 2026 internship positions.

Application Process: Applicants should apply by email to the address above. Emails should include the applicant's name and the words "Internship Application" in the subject line. Applications may also be submitted in hard copy. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Offers may be made at any time but will likely not be extended until after applicants' first-semester law school grades are received.

Application Materials: Applications should include a cover letter or statement of interest, resume, law school transcript, undergraduate transcript, brief writing sample, and list of references. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable. Applicants who apply prior to receiving their first-semester law school grades should supplement their applications (by email) as soon as those grades are released.
